

It is often said that certain saints have a way of finding people, especially during special times in their lives. That was the case for Red Bird Ministries. Through St. Teresa of Calcutta, they found the passion and inspiration to serve those suffering, specifically through the loss of a child.

The death of any loved one is a traumatic and complicated experience. There is an extraordinary impact, however, of losing a child. Red Bird Ministries' mission is to serve those suffering from the loss of a child. An organization that helps guide individuals and couples through the complexity and trauma that happens with the loss of a child from pregnancy through adulthood.

Red Bird Ministries was founded on helping parents address the profound healing that needs to happen while also honoring the memory of the child. Their unique value is in the attention given to protecting the individual, the marriage, and other relationships from a spectrum of issues that can compound and lead to dysfunction.

Red Bird Ministries partnered with the Archdiocese of Detroit to provide the tools and resources to support families who have experienced the loss of a child from pregnancy through adulthood. Red Bird Ministries is a non-profit, pro-life, and pro-family, Catholic grief support ministry.

St. Mary and St. Richard Parishes are seeking volunteers who feel they would help parents who have experienced the unthinkable, the loss of their child.
